Robert Gayman, Clair Albert, Robert Terry, Ernest Fricke and Robert Speiss, members of the Dillsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, were guests.

The group entered the meeting in the traditional Jaycee manner by rolling before them a barrel of coins collected at meetings and singing, "Roll Out the Barrel."

Robert Gayman, principal spokesman for the Dillsburg contingent, told the gathering of several Dillsburg projects and activities which he described as "a little bit different than you have here in Gettysburg." He discussed such projects as a "Stay-at-Home-4th," a dog raffle, a pizza pie sale, a "small scale welcome wagon," and a deep sea fishing trip which resulted in a fish fry with the West Shore Junior Chamber of Commerce.

VA. TRAVEL OFFICIAL IS VISITOR HERE

The possibility of closer working relationships between the Virginia Travel Council and the Gettysburg Travel Council was explored Thursday noon at a luncheon at the Lamp Post Tea Room for a committee from the local travel council and Robert Nelson, secretary of the Virginia Travel Council.

Because Gettysburg's primary tourist trade is Civil War based, Nelson said Virginia would be interested in a closer working arrangement by which each area would "push" the other to visitors in their section. He said experience in Civil War battlefield areas in Virginia has shown a steady growth of tourist interest over the last two years.

Representatives of the Gettysburg Travel Council will meet with the directors of the Virginia Travel Council May 16 at Luray, Va., to discuss further plans for cooperation between the two groups.

In a general discussion period Nelson said his travel council has had much success in promoting tours of travel agents, school officials, etc., to the state to interest them in promoting visitation to Virginia. He suggested that the Gettysburg group "invite such people here and show them what you have. When they have

Make New Lamp For Street Lights

A prototype of the "Gettysburg Post Lamp," manufactured by Haddco Aluminum Products Inc., Littlestown, is ready for installation on Lincoln Square for the consideration of the borough council.

According to Kent Daum, of the Haddco Co., the lamp "offers traditional appearance with modern lighting." The new lamp is 27 inches square at the top, 56 inches high and weighs approximately 125 pounds.

If approved, the lamps will be erected around Lincoln Square and for one block in four directions, which would require about 72 of the lamps. Daum said the lamp is of cast aluminum with flash opal glass "to insure consistent lighting." It will operate on a 6,000 lumen incandescent bulb and is adaptable for mercury vapor. He said, "It will never need replacing."

Eisenhower, Macmillan May Confer At Catoctin Retreat Or Gettysburg

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is expected to urge President Eisenhower to agree to a modified version of the Soviet proposal for banning nuclear weapons tests.

Macmillan, who will meet with Eisenhower next week, is understood to favor a time limit of about two years on the proposed moratorium on small underground tests.

Eisenhower administration leaders, in contrast to the British view, have so far decided only that the United States should not flatly reject the Soviet plan, it is understood.

Major Difficulty

A major difficulty facing the President in his forthcoming talks with Macmillan is that some of his chief advisers on the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission feel another series of underground nuclear weapons tests must be held some time in the relatively near future,

It's Warmer In Anchorage Than G-burg

Adams County folk who think the Weather Man is a little mixed up this spring had quite a bit of evidence this morning to support their stand.

Gettysburg's low reading this morning—with spring five days old—was 22 degrees while Anchorage, Alaska, had a low of 27, Portland, Me., had a low of 25 and Helena, Mont., enjoyed a low of 41 degrees.

For really balmy weather reports, the Associated Press came up with a high Thursday in Miami of 83, Tampa 74 and Honolulu 76. But there were parts of the country that found it harder than Gettysburgians to believe that spring has been here all week—by the calendar. Detroit and Buffalo had temperatures of 9 above zero this morning.

This morning's low of 22 made it the coldest March 25 in Gettysburg in 20 years. The record for the date was set at 12 above in 1934.

The weekly Thursday snow arrived early Thursday evening. It was only flurries as the first blasts of an icy west wind swept across this section of the state but it kept going Adams County's tradition of mid-week snow that has become well established in the last two months.

Saturday also marks the closing of Youth Religious Emphasis Week at the church.

GRANT'S PUSH TOO MUCH FOR GENERAL LEE SAYS GURNEY

Grant's insistence on "driving, driving, driving without letup" hastened the end of the Civil War, Hubert A. Gurney, superintendent of the Appomattox National Park, declared Thursday evening at a meeting of the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table in the GAR home, E. Middle St.

The Union armies had "better recuperative powers than the Confederate forces and as a result Grant could continue hammering away without cessation at Lee's army," Gurney said. "Before Grant took over in 1864 we saw a series of battles, after which both sides would withdraw and it would be months before another major battle occurred. That gave the South time to recruit and rebuild. When Grant took over he started the campaign of seeking out and fighting the Confederates wherever he found them, of continually pushing and, as a result, Lee was unable to recuperate between battles. Grant could do it because he had superior manpower and superior supplies."

Siege Of Richmond

In describing the siege of Richmond, Gurney said: "Grant kept extending his lines. When they finally cut the railroad supplying Richmond, Lee knew the moment had come when he must abandon the capital of the Confederacy."

"Lee had his army keep its campfires burning while the soldiers slipped out of Richmond. Thus the Union forces were unaware the retreat had started. But the time gained was lost when the supply trains, unaware of Lee's move, came into Richmond instead of stopping along the way so that the Confederate forces might have the supplies. Thus the Union army received the food and ammunition destined for Lee. The mishap also forced Lee to lose one day while more supplies were brought up. The day proved fatal. Union forces moving to surround him were able to get that much closer and on the night of April 8, 1865, Lee was to stand amidst his forces at Appomattox Courthouse. In the darkness of the night he could see the little campfires of the individual Union soldiers."

Lee Guessed Wrong

"The fires were on the east, west and south. Lee could only

Mental Health Unit Changes April Date

A change in date for the April meeting of the Adams County Mental Health Association was announced today by its president, Dr. Paul L. Reaser, after a meeting Thursday of the executive committee. The meeting will be held April 14 at 9:30 a.m. in the board room at the Warner Hospital instead of the regular third Thursday date.

The speaker will be Roy W. Harnish, medical social worker at Brookline Farm Hospital, operated and maintained by the Menonite Church at Hagerstown. He will tell of the work of that institution.

The change in date was made necessary because of a conflict in dates with a regular meeting of the Council of Community Services.

Deer Breaks Local Hardware Store Window

Easily distinguished from other visitors in town early Thursday evening was a frightened deer that ran against and broke a window at the Gettysburg Hardware Store, 43 Baltimore St.

According to police reports, the deer approached the store from the south. Apparently baffled by oncoming traffic, the deer turned left at W. Middle St. and, unable to control its speed, ran into the window. Damage was estimated at $50 while the deer continued on its uncharted course.

A police report said that the deer "failed to stop for the light" at S. Washington and W. Middle Sts. The animal finally found its way out of the town maze.

The deer also roamed through the high school and S. Stratton St. areas.

College Faculty Voices Protest Against "Oath" Clause In Education Act

The Gettysburg College faculty has passed a resolution urging Congress to repeal the "disclaimer affidavit" required by the National Defense Education Act. It was announced today by Dr. Seymour B. Dunn, dean.

A clause in the legislation requires an applicant for federal school aid to sign a notarized oath that he does not support violence or illegal overthrow of the government. The Gettysburg faculty called the requirement "negative, vague, and of a sort not required of others seeking federal aid."

The resolution praised the principal intent of the bill, enacted in 1958, strengthening American education and supporting deserving college students. Copies of the resolution were sent to President Eisenhower; Vice President Nixon; Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare; Senators Joseph S. Clark and Hugh Scott; and Congressman James M. Quigley.

"We believe that this requirement singles out a particular class—prospective students—and by implication makes that class an object of suspicion. We believe also that the requirement militates against the atmosphere of freedom of inquiry and belief proper and necessary to the pursuits of a liberal arts college and indeed to the autonomy of academic disciplines and institutions," the resolution declared.

"We believe, moreover, that the requirement is a futile gesture, since it offers no assurance that persons with dangerous beliefs and intentions will in fact be excluded from the benefits of the act," it continued.

The faculty statement said disapproval of the affidavit requirement was voiced by government officials, including President Eisenhower and Secretary Flemming, educational organizations and college institutions. A number of institutions have refused to participate in the federal program because of the objectionable provision. Others are participating under protest.

The local resolution advocates continued participation by the school but calls the disclaimer "inimical to the academic spirit."

CUMBERLAND HAS FACTS FOR PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

Cumberland Twp. officials, completing two days of extensive study of facts and figures about the township and its area Thursday, today announced they expect "within several weeks" to have ready for distribution to the township's approximately 3,000 residents, "a preliminary development plan for study by the residents before holding the first of several public meetings on the future of the township."

Taking part in the two-day study were Cumberland Twp. supervisors, Raymond Redding and Ross Crouse, and Secretary Lawrence Heltzel, the Cumberland Twp. Planning Commission, Col. T. H. Nixon, Charles Garland, John D. Teeter, Fred Green and Paul R. Knox; the Advisory Board of the Planning Commission, Mrs. S. D. Solomon, A. Kenneth Dick, Paul Wraybright, Eric Ruckelshaus, and representatives of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association and planning consultants, Charles P. Cella, Malcolm Webb, and Attorney David Craig of the Fels Institute of local and state government of the University of Pennsylvania.

Sound Basis For Planning

The Fels Institute representative outlined details of the study they made at the request of Cumberland Twp. and which is to be paid for by an amusement tax and federal funds.

Colonel Nixon, noting that "the planning study focuses on the present resources and future prospects of Cumberland Twp. and the entire Gettysburg community," said, "It provides an excellent background for understanding the factors which will shape our future growth. We believe that we now have accumulated enough data to give us the factual basis we need to formulate a sound zoning plan for the township."

To Inform Residents

Raymond Redding, president of the board of supervisors, said the people of the township will be "kept fully informed as work progresses on planning and zoning. In the next few weeks the Planning Commission and its consultants will develop a preliminary zoning plan for distribution and study by the citizens of the township. Then the Planning Commission will hold at least two public meetings to give ample opportunity for interested individuals and groups to present their comments and suggestions."

"Following these meetings, the Planning Commission and its advisory committee, which is to be increased beyond its present size, will review the zoning draft, revise it as necessary and then submit it to the Board of Supervisors for action."

The planning study summarized information about the township, including its soils and physical characteristics, population trends, housing, farming, conservation, the National Park, business and industry and community facilities.

See 6,000 By 1970

With the census figures showing that Cumberland's population increased from 2,000 in 1950 to almost 3,000 in 1959—a gain of 45 per cent in nine years, as contrasted with a 12 per cent growth from 1940 to 1950, the study suggested the possibility that Cum-

Armed Convicts Give Up Hostages Unharmd After Dramatic 25-Hour Siege

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two mean, armed convicts who had threatened a mass murder of 19 hostages walked quietly from a captured office at the Tennessee Penitentiary Thursday, ending a dramatic 25-hour siege.

In a sudden and almost anticlimactic ending, Robert Rivera and Raymond Farra handed over their two pistols and four knives and surrendered after state officials agreed to their scaled-down demands.

The hostages, three women and 16 men, were released unharmd. Warden Lynn Bomar said the pistols might have come from a guard, not identified, who was fired last month for smuggling guns into the prison. He said the former guard was not prosecuted, but charges may be filed against him now.

Farra, 25, a native of Borderland, W. Va., is listed on prison records as insane and capable of murder. He is serving a life sen-

FIVE INCHES OF SNOW FALLS IN WEST PENNSY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Spring stepped aside for winter again to lay as weather-weary residents plodded through five inches of new snow in some parts of western Pennsylvania.

The snow was swept into the state by winds that reached more than 40 miles per hour Thursday night and early today. Indiana County reported five inches of new snow while the Pittsburgh area had a half inch.

A rash of traffic crashes on slippery highways were reported. In one, 11 cars piled up on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Donegal. Six persons were injured, none seriously.

Three Cut By Glass
In Pittsburgh three men were cut by glass when wind shattered two large windows in a downtown building. And in Windber, Somerset County, the winds tore down an electric line, temporarily knocking out power to homes in the community.

In western Crawford County—where four inches of snow fell—officials said there would be no school today at the Linesville-Conneaut-Summit school district.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike was snow and ice-covered from the Gateway on the Ohio line to the Carlisle Interchange. House trailers were banned over this section.

Chain-reaction Crash
A chain-reaction crash involving nine cars occurred on a secondary road just north of Washington. Four persons suffered minor cuts and bruises.

Four more inches of snow fell in Somerset County overnight, raising the total for the 1959-60 winter season to 163 inches. The total for this month now is 60 inches. Both are new records.

The previous yearly high was 160 inches in 1957-58. The previous monthly high was 60 inches in February of this year.

GRANT'S PUSH

move north and there he would find the river.

"Still Lee was not ready to surrender. He believed that the forces to his west were but dismounted cavalry through which his surviving forces might fight. At dawn on April 9 Gordon's troops made the attempt to break through. At first they were successful. Lee seemed right. There seemed nothing there but dismounted cavalry, no match for the infantrymen. But when the cavalrymen fell back, there was the Union infantry. The final desperate charge ended and Lee sent a flag of truce to arrange for a surrender.

"The front parlor of the McClean house was chosen and there Lee, the gallant commander of the Confederacy, surrendered to Grant, whose everlasting hammering against the Confederacy had brought about the final entrapment.

Liberal Surrender Terms
"Grant's terms were most liberal. He even permitted the men to take their horses. But he did insist on a formal surrender of arms and flags and so on April 12 a last sad parade occurred, when the remaining Confederate troops laid down their arms and flags before the Union troops. Grant himself was not there to see the final surrender. He had returned to Washington.

"Lee had left Richmond with about 45,000 men. When he reached Appomattox about 23,000 remained. The men themselves knew the end was near and had slipped away along the line of retreat. Lee's final report on April 9 listed 8,000 effectives.

"About 100 were killed or wounded in that last engagement on the morning of April 9. Of that number 19 are buried at Appomattox."

The park superintendent explained that the McClean house, now standing, dedicated in 1950, is a reproduction of the original home. A group purchased the home in the 1890's and decided to move it to Washington. They dismantled the house but never rebuilt it. But the plans they had drawn to put the home together again at Washington were invaluable in reconstructing the scene of the surrender.

President Dr. Harry Pfanz named Jacob M. Sheads, C. G. Rohrbaugh, John K. Weitzel, William G. Weaver and G. Henry Roth as a committee to study the information being received by the Adams County Civil War Centennial Commission from schools and individuals in preparation for a planned publication of a Civil War history of the county.

House Group Ups Sums For Education

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today voted sharp increases in President Eisenhower's education and health budgets and called for an all-out war against juvenile delinquency.

In a $4,184,022,731 bill financing the Labor Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the committee said the administration's health proposals "represented a retrenchment, a step backward," and its education budget called for "an arbitrary cut."

It recommended $197,400,500 more than the President requested for the Welfare Department, earmarking most of the increase for sewage treatment programs, aid to schools, and health projects. The action, if sustained by Congress, would give the department $3,619,044,531 for the fiscal year starting July 1.

CUMBERLAND

berland may have a population as high as 6,000 by 1970—particularly since Gettysburg is nearing capacity development.

The report showed the number of farms in the township decreased from 147 to 104 in the four years from 1950 to 1954, but the cropland harvested remained the same, at about 8,200 acres.

A number of suggestions were listed by the Fels Institute including the recommendation that "suitable land be reserved for light industry and for commercial clusters to expand the township's economic and tax base." Also suggested was a broad density policy for the township, with some sections suggested for "suburban residential density," some for "rural-residential density" and some for rural-farm density.

"At The Crossroads"
The experts translated the "density" suggestion as meaning that areas where sewage, water, electricity are available be designated as "suburban density" in which homes would be permitted to be close together with lot sizes of approximately 10,000 square feet. Medium density would be areas away from sewer and water—where wells and septic tanks would be needed. The Fels suggested that a minimum lot permitted in those areas would be 30,000 square feet to make sure that there would be no pollution between septic tanks and wells. Rural density is the term given to farm areas where homes generally are far apart. The Fels group noted that its suggestions where only suggestions—that final determination would be up to the people of the township.

But they said the township should encourage intensive residential development in areas where it can be best serviced from the standpoint of extension of needed services, such as water lines, sewers, paving, street lights, rubbish disposal, etc.

The Fels reported stated: "With

"THIS IS THE MOMENT"

This is the moment of enchantment . . . time when my heart is standing still . . . wrapped in the wonderland of heaven . . . feeling a most endearing thrill . . . this is the moment arms embrace me . . . holding me in a magic spell . . . moment I always will remember . . . period without parallel . . . this is the moment hearts beat faster . . . pounding out a song of bliss . . . racing toward a far-off planet . . . with ever tender, mellow kiss . . . this is the moment dreams are made of . . . once in a lifetime, so they say . . . only experienced by lovers . . . who live to make each other gay . . . if this could only last forever . . . life would be one big endless smile . . . waste not a fraction of its splendor . . . this is the moment most worthwhile.

respect to its future pattern of development, Cumberland is at the crossroads. The township is still, and is likely to continue to be, predominantly agricultural. However from this time on, Cumberland may be expected to experience a more marked transformation from farm to nonfarm. Whether this growth will be orderly or haphazard will depend to a large degree on the land use policy adopted by the township and the measures taken to enforce it. Any plan for the township's future development should reflect not only what is thought to be probable, but also what the residents of Cumberland believe to be desirable. The plan should, of course, be a general flexible guide to the future development of the township. It should be adjusted and modified as necessary to take proper account of changing circumstances.

12 Key Objectives

"Indiscriminate and uncontrolled growth can result in increasingly serious conflict among farms, homes, stores and industry throughout the township. If Cumberland's expansion is unguided, wasteful and sometimes unsightly urban sprawl may be expected to make further inroads. Widely scattered areas of development are expensive and difficult to serve and add extra burdens on the taxpayer. They often require the costly and inefficient provision of urban facilities in areas in which such facilities ought not to have become necessary.

negotiating with state and prison officials, they finally came out under this signed and notarized agreement:

They would be taken to the Davidson County Jail here "unharmful, unmolested and unharassed" to stay until the courts act on their petitions for writs of habeas corpus. They would not lose their good behavior time as a result of the rebellion.

"We Didn't Sleep"

The agreement, signed by Corrections Commission Keith Hampton, three lawyers and the convicts, was contingent upon it being published in Thursday afternoon's Nashville Banner. It also stipulated Farra and Rivera would not be placed in solitary confinement or in the prison's maximum security unit.

The Banner published an extra edition to carry the agreement. Mrs. Jerry Tarpy, an accounting clerk at the prison and one of the women hostages, said on her release, "We never were really terrified. They didn't threaten us. But they had those guns. We didn't sleep."

sary.

"Through suitable controls, tailor-made for Cumberland Twp., future development can be guided into a desirable, properly related and harmonious overall pattern. The time to develop such a sound policy of development is now."

The reported listed 12 "key planning objectives for Cumberland" which will be related in Saturday's edition of The Gettysburg Times.

tion system to detect and that cheating on them would be possible.

The Soviets first denounced the President's limited treaty proposal but then on Saturday switched their position. They said they would be willing to negotiate a limited treaty provided that the three powers would at the same time agree to an informal moratorium on the small underground tests.

Their proposition is very similar to the line taken by the British in discussing Eisenhower's limited treaty plan at the time it was being developed. The British argued that the United States should declare its readiness to continue a voluntary ban on small underground tests for a period of time such as two years. During this period, they contended, ways might be found to improve detection methods so that all testing, including small underground explosions, could then be covered by the treaty.

The British position as it was being developed is thus very close to the present Soviet position. Some officials think that one reason the Soviets switched to a limited treaty concept was that they hoped thereby to split Britain and the United States.

100 Fruitmen Gather For Special Meet: More than 100 orchard men and women attended a special meeting called Friday night in the Bigview auditorium by the Adams County Fruit Growers' association to discuss methods of meeting the problems imposed by the unusual weather conditions of the past two weeks. One of the main items of business was the endorsement by the association of a move to provide larger and better buildings and more ground for the Arendtsville Fruit laboratory.

J. O. Pepper, extension specialist for the Pennsylvania State college, reported that the unusual weather conditions have affected the entire eastern seaboard, and that oranges, peaches, plums and other fruit are from two weeks to four weeks ahead of the usual schedule.

Today's Talk

FALSE PRIDE

One of the marks of intelligence in a man is his willingness to admit ignorance—and then correct it. For equally, to know that you know, and to know that you do not know, is intelligence. Pretense is soon stripped of its glamour. Falseness dies without mourners. Only frank admission is immortal.

Too frequently we credit the belief that many "get by" with lack of effort and failure to use his or her brains. As a matter of fact, FEW "get by"—and these few only for a little while.

The man who KNOWS, and goes ahead with his knowledge, using it to its fullest possibilities, never has to apologize for the false colors under which he marches.

Frankness, openness, straightforwardness—honesty always get the most in every way. If not at the moment, eventually!

There is just nothing smart, clever or successful about misrepresentation. It is bad enough to trade under false colors in commerce, but for a man to do so in regard to his character, is to cover his soul flag—in disgrace. Besides, it takes precious time to explain and excuse. And that is what false pride always calls for in the end.

Over the door of every classroom, and on the walls of every office in the land, there should be displayed these words of Shakespeare:

To thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "These Years Of Ours"

Just Folks

THE WAY TO LIVE
The way to live! Before I die
This is the art that I would know;
To be myself to every eye,
To let my thoughts in actions show.

To spurn the popular veneer
And wear the simple garb of truth,
Nor seek to hide each passing year
By posing in the dress of youth.

To live as what I really am,
Not what I think may please
the throng;
To turn my back on every sham,
Indifferent never to a wrong.

The way to live! Before I die
This is the art that I would learn;
To be myself to every eye,
To claim no joy I cannot earn.

MILK PRICES
TO TAKE DIP

HARRISBURG (AP)—Retail milk prices in the Pittsburgh, Reading and Johnstown-Altoona districts will go down only half the normal penny-a-quart seasonal reduction, under final orders issued by the State Milk Control Commission.

All other milk marketing areas will reduce prices a cent a quart April 1. Milk prices normally go down April 1 because production costs are less during the summer pasture season. They go up Sept. 1.

The retail price for standard home-delivered milk in Pittsburgh will be 26½ cents; Reading 25½ cents, and Altoona-Johnstown, 25 cents.

In addition the producer prices of milk in the Pittsburgh and Reading areas will be reduced less than previously scheduled, while producers will get the same April 1 price they would have gotten under the old order.

U. N. COUNCIL WILL MEET ON SOUTH AFRICA

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council will be called into a special session early next week to discuss the explosive South African racial conflict.

The Asian-African bloc called for the meeting. They planned to present a formal request later for the council to take up the situation arising from the killing of some 80 Negro demonstrators by South African police this week. The Asian-African letter, reportedly said the South African situation was a potential threat to international peace.

U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge, Security Council president for March, told newsmen he would convene the 11-nation group "within a few days"—probably on Tuesday.

Seven Votes Necessary
Diplomats said the Asian-African bloc countries were considering asking the council to condemn the killings and to create an investigating committee.

Only seven votes are necessary to put the issue on the council's agenda, and the Asian-African request seemed certain to muster that many.

Lodge would not say how the United States would vote. But he noted that in the past the United States has held that South Africa's segregation policy—the root of the present trouble—was "a proper subject for discussion in the United Nations."

Previous Boycotts

The South African government has protested and boycotted all previous U.N. debates on its white supremacy policy. The 32-nation General Assembly ruled then that it could discuss the issue but was not competent to intervene.

Acute tension still gripped South Africa but no new violence was reported.

Negro absentees from work continued to increase in South Africa, producing a creeping industrial paralysis. The stay-at-home movement was organized after the earlier demonstrations ended in bloodshed.

The Negroes' immediate aim is to get rid of the identification passbooks which all Negroes are required to carry outside their homes.

UNION CHIEFS
RESTRICTED IN USE OF FUNDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Union funds cannot be used by officers of Teachers Local 107 for defense of their actions in either federal or state courts, U. S. District Judge Thomas J. Clary has ruled.

"To allow a union officer to use the power and wealth of the very union he is accused of pilfering to defend himself against such charges is totally inconsistent with Congress' efforts to eliminate the undesirable element which has been uncovered in the labor-management field," Clary said Thursday.

His ruling was in a suit entered last Sept. 30 by a Betterment Committee of the local under the new Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act. The committee seeks an audit of some four million dollars in funds of the local.

Rulings Will Hold

At the same time Clary directed the Betterment Committee members who filed the complaint to amend it within 30 days and set forth specific acts occurring since last Sept. 14, the date the act went into effect.

Clary said his rulings holds even though the union membership last Sept. 20 authorizes use of union funds for defense of its five officers, a member and a former agent indicted by the September Grand Jury on charges of conspiring to defraud the union.

Clary said he is retaining jurisdiction to determine at a future date the question of ordering reimbursement to the union of fees paid so far for the defense of the indicted men.

Clary dismissed all charges re-

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An estimated 5,000 persons, including Mayor Richardson Dilworth, Thursday night filed past the bier of 17-year-old John A. Campiglia Jr., an innocent victim of a group of Negro boys.

Many other dignitaries were among those who paid their last respects to the white honor student.

The mourners quietly passed the open casket as the victim's mother, Mrs. Florence Campiglia, sat crying on a nearby divan.

There were hundreds of floral pieces. One was from a former teacher. It read:

UNION LEADER
HIT WITH EGG

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Michael J. Quill, international president of the Transport Workers Union, got hit with an egg Thursday night at a mass meeting of the union's Local 234.

"Unruffled by it all, Quill wiped his suit coat with a handkerchief and told the 1,200 members "That was a freshly laid egg. When I first came here the eggs were rotten."

The outburst was touched off by a resolution introduced by Charles H. Robinson, president of Local 234. Robinson refused to hear a motion from the floor on an amendment to the resolution.

He then tried to introduce Quill, but the international president said he would not speak unless the members had their say. That's when he was splashed with the egg. Another one missed him.

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Firemen used a bulldozer to clear a path blocked by snow drifts to reach a burning barn five miles north of Harrisville Thursday.

The barn, on the farm of Paul Martin, was destroyed. A number of animals were killed and some farm machinery was ruined.

Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Gambling Trial
Of 20 Recessed

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The gambling trial of 20 men arrested in a state police raid last September has been recessed until Monday when attorneys will sum up their cases.

Judge Harold L. Paul called the recess Thursday after the prosecution rested its case and defense counsel Donald Dobin and John Lavelle said they would not present any witnesses.

In all, 66 persons were arrested in the raid at a frozen food locker near Tamaqua. The 20 on trial are charged with maintaining a gambling house and setting up and maintaining gambling devices. The others were named as frequenters of a game of chance.

Some 24 state police testified for the state. Among them were troopers who said they participated in gambling as undercover agents.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police said an anonymous man phoned International Airport Thursday night and said a bomb was on one of the airplanes. He did not say which aircraft, officers reported.

Among the planes searched was one carrying the Boston Celtics back home after they defeated the Philadelphia Warriors 119-117 for their fourth straight eastern division championship in the National Basketball Assn.

Bermudian Springs Ball Squad Has But 3 Vets; First Game On March 30

With but three lettermen included among a group of 19 candidates, Coach "Pete" Kemper of the Bermudian Springs High School baseball team faces a difficult task in preparing for the 1960 campaign.

According to Coach Kemper he will have to rely greatly on a group of sophomores who appear to be the top new candidates.

The three lettermen back are Robert Weigle, senior, who will pitch as well as play in the outfield; Ronald Spangler, junior, listed tentatively as a catcher, and Craig Hoke, sophomore, an outfielder.

Squad Roster
The complete roster of candidates and their probable positions follow:

Seniors — Weigle, pitcher-outfielder; Fred Starnier, infielder and the only other candidate from last year's squad; Gary Prosser, infielder.

Juniors — Ronald Spangler, catcher; Tom Roth, outfielder; George Miller, infielder-pitcher; Roger Sowers, infielder; Edgar Griffie, outfielder.

Freshman-Spence Stambaugh, pitcher-catcher.

Drills Hampered

So far the squad workouts have been confined to throwing indoors. Snow-covered fields and continued cold weather threatens postponement of several early scheduled games.

Bermudian has 15 games listed with two open dates.

The schedule:

March 30, Spring Grove, away; April 1, Boiling Springs, home; 5, Boiling Springs, away; 7, Dover, home; 8, Big Springs, away; 12, open; 14, Big Springs, home; 19, New Oxford, away; 21, Fairfield, away; 26, Littlestown, away; 28, open; May 3, New Oxford, home; 5, Fairfield, home; 10, Littlestown, home; 12, Delone, home; 17, Northern, home; 19, Delone, away. *Adams County League games.

PITTSBURGH LEADING MAT TOURNAMENT

By GEORGE BOWEN

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Pittsburgh went into the quarter finals of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. wrestling tournament today with a hair breadth chance of being only the second eastern team to win it.

Penn State has been the only eastern outfit able to crack through the western wall in the past 29 tournaments and that was seven years ago.

Pitt had 11 points largely through three falls among its eight victories Thursday. Each wrestler earns a point by advancing and another if he pins his opponent or the foe defaults.

Iowa Is Second

Iowa University was only a team point back of the Panthers, while Iowa U. and Oklahoma were tied for third with nine. Penn State and Wyoming were in the running with eight apiece, one more than defending champion Oklahoma State and Lock Haven, Pa., Teachers.

Among the 80 wrestlers remaining out of the 219 starters, Oklahoma was in the best position with five. Pitt, Penn State, Iowa State, Iowa, Wyoming, and Oklahoma State all have four.

Pitt's hopes of holding the lead rested on Dick Martin, 123 pounds, Larry Lauchle, 130, Darly Kelvington, 137, and Anthony Vuocolo, 177.

Kelvington pinned both his opponents, but faces a tarrar this afternoon in Les Anderson of Ioo State, Anderson is the Big 8 champion, and last year he was 130-pound NCAA runner-up.

Lucky In Draw

Lauchle is lucky in his draw. He is in the lower bracket while Stan Abel, the defending champ at 130 is in the upper.

Martin also is in the lower 123 pound bracket which will keep him away from awhile from Dave Auble, the defending champion from Cornell who has won 32 bouts in a row and lost only one in 50.

Gordon Trapp and Sherwin Thorson helped Iowa mostly by scoring falls in their first round preliminaries. Trapp then defeated Richard Keeler of Longbeach State 2-1 in the 191 pound class and Thorson upset Johnston Oberly, Penn State's eastern heavyweight champion 7-2.

Oklahoma was bumped off its stride in the first round when its first seeded Sid Terry was decided 8-5 in the 157-pound class by Ronald Pifer of Penn State.

MANY IFS FACE BOSTON UNDER NEW MANAGER

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Bill Jurgens starts his first full season managing a Boston Red Sox club on which "very little is set."

"We won't know until the week before the season begins what kind of a club we'll have," declares the former Chicago Cub and New York Giants' infielder.

In the catching department trouble looms if the Red Sox have to return Russ Nixon to Cleveland and Sammy White remains retired. When Boston traded White to the Tribe for Nixon, Sammy said he was quitting So Cleveland has asked Nixon back.

How much will Ted Williams be able to play?

He's appeared in more spring games than in recent years and says he feels "pretty good." He hit only 254 last year as a back all-time plagued him.

There's no doubt about Boston's third base job. Frank Malzone, second only to Jackie Jensen in runs-batted-in for the club with 92 last season, anchors the infield there.

Jensen, although a recent visitor at the Red Sox camp, hasn't changed his decision of the past winter to retire.

With him gone, right-handed hitting power looms as a major need. First baseman Ron Jackson, who had several trials with the Chicago White Sox and hit 286 with 30 homers at Indianapolis last year, could supply power. But his spring performance hasn't been impressive.

Several Outfielders

If Jackson doesn't make the varsity, Pete Runnels and Vic Wertz shared the first base job. But Jurgens would prefer to use Pete at second.

Don Buddin again will be at shortstop.

Outfielders include Williams, veteran Bobby Thomson who was acquired by trade from the Cubs, Gene Stephens, Marty Keough, Jim Busby and rookies Lou Clinton and Jerry Mallett.

Tom Brewer, Jerry Casale, Ike Delock and Frank Sullivan head the returning delegation in the pitching department. All are right-handers. Casale posted a 13-8 record last year, Brewer 10-12, Delock 11-6 and Sullivan 9-11.

Bill Monbouquette posted a 7-7 record in his first full season of major league ball.

Eye Strivings

Ex-Yankee Tom Sturdivant, obtained in a trade with Kansas City, could also win a starting assignment.

Only left-handers on the roster are Tom Borland, who had a 14-8 mark with Minneapolis last season, Ted Bowsfield and Ted Willis who also did most of their 1959 work in the Minnesota city.

Ex-Cub Dave Hillman, counted on for extended relief service, hasn't yet recovered from a shoulder injury suffered in an automobile accident here.

Jurgens observed, "There is quite a bit of building to be done."

PHILS LOSE AGAIN

LAKEHURST, N.J. (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies meet the Detroit Tigers here again today, hoping to break a six-game losing streak in exhibition play.

Five Philadelphia pitchers walked 11 batters and hit two more yesterday as the Phils were defeated by Detroit 9-4 at Clearwater. The Phils also committed five errors in dropping their seventh game in 10 starts this spring.

National Football League teams averaged 13.2 yards per pass completion during the 1959 season.

$300 BALL BAT IS INTRODUCED

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A $300 baseball bat will turn up at the Washington Senators' camp at Orlando, Fla., next month.

It's made of canvas and clear plastic. It cannot be broken. This bat and others like it will be used in practice by the Senators and the Portland, Ore., club of the Pacific Coast League.

The designer, Ray Tanguay, claims a player can correct and improve his hitting with the bat. Canvas, glued with resin and compressed under pressure, forms the handle.

The plastic portion, which Tanguay calls the "window," forms what players call the "fat of the bat."

Inside the plastic is a half-inch rod. It gives the batter the impression he is hitting a ball with a half-inch shaft instead of a full bat. This, it is hoped, will sharpen reflexes, sight and coordination.

NEW GRID LOOP WILL TELECAST MANY '60 TILTS

NEW YORK (AP)—New York television viewers will have more chances to see the Dallas Texans than their own Giants during the 1960 pro football season.

That was indicated today by Jay Michaels, who is helping sportscaster Harry Wismer set up a TV program for the budding American Football League.

Michaels is an executive of the Music Corp. of America, a talent agency.

New York, where the Titans plan to play their home games on Friday nights, will get about 30 AFL games on TV. All the Titans road games will be televised in this area, along with a Saturday night "game of the week" and a Sunday game any time the Titans aren't playing.

May Be Conflicts

Cities like Chicago, which has no AFL entry, also will be saturated with TV showings and will get more American than National Football League games on TV. There may be direct conflicts in Dallas, Los Angeles and San Francisco-Oakland between the home games of one league and TV games of the other, but Michaels said the AFL is trying to avoid this.

The AFL plan calls for a nationally televised game each Saturday night and local broadcasts into the territory of the visiting teams on Sunday afternoons. Regional networks will be established to cover areas which have no AFL teams.

The NFL, which plays most of its games Sundays, has similar regional setups.

As a result of protests from Dallas and some other cities where colleges play Saturday nights, the AFL will black out certain cities in which leading college games are played.

GOALBY LEADS DESOTO OPEN

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Bob Goalby has been in the money in nine out of 10 golf tournaments this year, and it was obvious to the 29-year-old playing out of Crystal River, Fla., doesn't intend to miss any "dollars in the current $40,000 DeSoto Lakes Open."

He shot a 4-under-par 67 to lead a tough field in the first round of the 72-hole DeSoto event Thursday.

Although 22 players managed to hit par or better over the 6,902-yard, par 35-36-71 layout, many of the well-known contenders had their troubles.

Among those who solved the tricky course were Al Balding, also playing out of Crystal River, who shot 34-34-68 for the No. 2 spot; Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., with 34-35-69; and Jerry Barber of Los Angeles, who joined Snead and four others in the 69 bracket.

In a good position at par 71 was Arnold Palmer, current top pro money winner.

Bowling Leaders Change 12 Times

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Fears the current American Bowling Congress championship might be one of the lowest in scoring in recent years were dissipated Thursday as 12 changes were made in the leader standings.

Biggest of these was when Paul Kulbaga, 32, a Cleveland department store employee, grabbed first place in both singles and all-events and paired with a teammate for second in doubles.

Kulbaga was low man with 549 when the Buddy Simon Sign team of Cleveland took second in the open team division Wednesday on a 3060. Kulbaga proceeded to knock out 676 in the doubles and 726 in the singles for his minor events performance Thursday.

He got 639-pin support from George Schulz in the doubles to give the pair 1315.

WAMPUM AND WEST READING ARE FAVORED TO WIN TONIGHT

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Wampum and West Reading are favored to win the 1960 PIAA Class B and C titles tonight.

Wampum, WPIAL champion, meets Montrose of Dist. 12 in the B final at the Catholic Youth Center in Scranton.

West Reading of Dist. 3 defends its Class C title against upstart Commodore Perry of Dist. 10 at Westminster College in New Wilmington.

Montrose Is Threat

Montrose, the only unbeaten team in the state, is rated a good chance to upset the Wampum winning tradition. The eastern champs are 24-0; Wampum is 25-3.

The first team in its district to advance to the state final, Montrose scored an impressive victory over Columbia of Dist. 3 in the eastern final Tuesday, 66-64.

It has a well-balanced team which averaged 75 points a game. It will have a height advantage over Wampum.

Brothers Make Difference

Montrose's big man is 6-3 Jon Gaines, backed by 6-2 John Dean and 6-0 Bruce Darrow. All are seniors.

Wampum's role as favorite is based on the brother scoring act of Rich and Ron Allen. Rich, a first team all-state member last year, has 669 points; Ron 442. Ron, a junior, is Wampum's tallest man at 6-2. Jim Santelli, a sophomore, is 6-0.

Wampum was state champion in 1955 and 1958.

West Reading is heavily favored to win its second straight Class C title against smaller Perry.

The Cowboys will have three starters as big or bigger than the Panthers' tallest man, 6-1 Ron McDonald, a senior.

Ron Krick, 6-8 junior whose 2,471 points is the most prolific production in state scholastic history, heads West Reading. The Cowboys also have 6-3 senior Red Goodwin and 6-1 junior Jack Meyer.

Krick has tallied 900 points this season while Perry's leading scorer, Dave Cook has netted 400.

West Reading's season record is 26-3.

Class A Saturday

Perry carries a deceptive 12-14 record into the final. The Panthers were a late starter playing in tough competition.

Their hopes for Dist. 10's fourth state title in nine years rest on aggressiveness and speed. They simply hope to wear the West Reading boys down to size.

The Class A championship meeting between defending titlist Farrell of the WPIAL and Radnor of Dist. 1 is Saturday night at the Farm Show Arena here.

It will be televised statewide (7:30 p.m., EST).

Laurel Meet Will Open Wednesday

LAUREL, Md.—Creswood Dottie, owned by Paul Cresci, of New Jersey, and trained by Bowes Bond, of Savage, Md., heads a field of 20 Maryland-bred three-year-olds named for the third running of the $15,000 added Maryland Derby here on April 30.

Laurel open its annual spring meeting next Wednesday and the Maryland Derby will be the last of six stakes to be offered during the session ending on May 3.

Creswood Dottie has been in training here with the Derby her main objective. She bounded into prominence at Laurel last fall by winning the Maryland Futurity at six furlongs, then moved over to Pimlico where she won the Pimlico Breeders' Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth.

In all the chestnut filly won five races in 10 starts to earn a tidy $21,645. She was bred by Col. H. B. Marcus at Glade Valley Farm, Walkersville, Md., and is by Call Over out of Virginia Beach.

MANTLE GOES HITLESS IN 4 TIMES AT BAT

By JIM KENSIL

Associated Press Sports Writer
Does it really pay to hold out? Financially, sometimes. Physically, seldom.

Mickey Mantle and Lew Burdette, most persistent of the big name 1960 holdouts, played regulation baseball for the first time this spring in Florida Thursday. Neither really was ready.

Mantle, with an old knee injury aggravated by a training speed-up; went 0-for-4 as his New York teammates were slaughtered 10-3 by the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Petersburg.

Burdette, again counted as Milwaukee's No. 1 right-hander, took the mound only five days after signing. The light-hitting Chicago White Sox nailed him for three runs in a ninth-inning rally, but the Braves won 9-7 at Sarasota.

The Braves, however, were cheered by Red Schoendienst's best day of the spring. Red, hustling for his old second base job after being sidelined by tuberculosis last year, had a double and two singles in the five innings he played.

Phils Lose Again
In other Florida games, Washington defeated Los Angeles 9-7 at Orlando, Pittsburgh beat Baltimore 3-2 in 10 innings at Fort Myer, Detroit, whipped Philadelphia 9-4 at Clearwater, and in a night game at Tampa, Kansas City edged Cincinnati 4-3 in 10 innings.

In Arizona, the Boston Red Sox blanked the San Francisco Giants 3-0 at Scottsdale, and the Chicago Cubs outscored the Cleveland Indians 8-6 at Mesa.

REDLEGS FEEL THEY HAVE BIG ACE IN PINSON

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A new baseball star in the wings. The name is Vada Pinson of the Cincinnati Reds.

Pinson, only 21, is an all-around player with blinding speed. In his first full year in the majors he took over center field at Cincinnati and played every one of the 154 games.

Now and then his inexperience shows, but it usually is the result of trying too hard.

In the early exhibition games this year he had 13 hits in his first 27 at bats, just a shade under 500. He stretches singles into doubles and roves far and wide into left and center.

Sure-fire Star

Freddie Hutchinson, the Cincinnati Manager, considers him a sure-fire big name star of the future.

"If anybody is a potential 400 hitter, Pinson is the man," said Hutchinson, a man not addicted to superlatives. "He hits both left-handers and right-handers."

"The kid has speed. He can hit to any field with power. He is a good base runner who will be much better."

The averages show Pinson, a left-handed hitter, batted .354 against southpaws and .301 against right-handers last season, en route to a .316 average, fourth best in the National League. He hit 20 homers, knocked in 84 runs and led the league in runs scored with 31.

Has Great Potential

Pinson would have been "rookie of the year" in 1959 if he hadn't been at bat 96 times in 27 games with the Reds in 1958 after a sensational spring.

"I saw him hit a ball directly at the right fielder and still wind up on second base, making it easy," said Hutchinson. "He really can tap that speed

Sins Raised Cross On Hill Of Golgotha

REV. JOHN S. BISHOP

Assistant Pastor,
St. James Lutheran Church

GOD'S LOVE SEEKS REAL WORTH OF MAN

It is said that those who passed the crucifixion scene on Golgotha were appalled by what they saw. They smote their breasts and went home.

Two thousand years later we still cringe from the thought of that hill and its cross. It haunts us as a symbol of man's worst infamy, that is, if we see only the human side of it. If we look a little deeper we discover something else. God is there too. He is offering His Son for the redemption of mankind. We recognize the Good Shepherd laying down His life for the flock. We behold the amazing love of God, which, as Frederick Faber said, "is broader than the measure of man's mind."

True, it was sin which really raised that cross — my sin, your sin, all of mankind's sin. Back in our student days a wandering poet drifted into seminary one afternoon to sell copies of his works. There was one with a disquieting title — "Crucified Still!" The mournful lament of a favorite spiritual puts it in a blunt question: "Were You There?" A young soldier saw it in the bitter struggle of World War I. He imagined that the Son of God was out there in no man's land caught in the terrific crossfire of both lines. Man at his worst again!

"Compassion For Mankind"

And, yet, that is not the only significance of this Cross to which our thoughts return these Lenten days. It is a symbol of love too—the love of God and His compassion for mankind. It is a symbol of faith, even God's faith in us and our real worth. He counts us worth the terrible price of our redemption. After God had completed His work of creation, according to the Biblical account, He looked upon what He had done and saw that it was very good. And from the moment that His prize creation got himself into trouble God began making plans to get him out of it.

The gospel writers tell us that Jesus knew what was in man. He knew the worst but He knew also the best. He was counting on the latter. One of those memorable visits to the Holy City during His last week He paused for a moment one evening on the steep ascent and, looking back over the city, He lamented its fate. He knew what it was. He knew what it might have been. He went on to vindicate His faith in what it should be for all of us.

"Disillusioned By Failures"

Too often our perspective is myopic. It is short-sighted by the disappointments of our daily lives. We become disillusioned by failures in all walks of life. Like the psalmist we say, "Who will show us any good?" Or, "Whom can we trust?" Forgetting that later he corrected his judgment and confessed that he was hasty when he charged that all men are liars. When he remembered the love and the mercy of God, he revised his opinion and said, "Fret not thyself because of evil doers . . . the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord."

Some time ago a famous comedian told this story about a young doctor who was embarking for China. His friend tried to dissuade him. They called him a fool. "You will be absolutely helpless," they said, "against the suffering of that gigantic nation. You will disappear in that vast mass of humanity. What can you do about their epidemics? What can you accomplish against war, famine and flood?"

As he stepped up the gangplank, the young man gave his reply, "When it is dark about me, I do not curse the darkness, I just light my candle." Long ago God set His light on a hill, a hill shaped like a skull. And forevermore that light becomes new hope, new courage, new faith, new life to all who will follow that light.

"Spiritual Awakening Heals A Growth"

WGCT (1450 kc)

The Spell of a Story

Think back, grown-up! There haven't been many joys in life that compare to the thrill of being read to. Remember—we came to know most of those stories by heart—and we loved them more each time we heard them.

Robin Hood and Little John—King Arthur and Sir Launcelot—they became old friends. And the heroes of our Bible stories—David and Daniel and the Boy Jesus in the Temple—they lived before our eyes as though the centuries had melted away.

Those stories helped to mold our lives. They taught us courage and faith. We sought to be like the heroes we loved.

Today, grown-up, your child needs the right stories. Are you taking advantage of the Church's program of religious education for youth? Are you giving your youngster the best start in life by making yours a worshipping, a church-supporting home?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Local Couple Wins Week In Miami Beach As Prize In Drawing At Kennie's

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene "Bim" Miller, 128 West Middle St., are the winners of the "free vacation for two" in Miami Beach awarded by Kennie's Market, S. Franklin St.

The drawing took place Saturday evening and won for Mr. and Mrs. Miller a free vacation to Miami Beach "for eight enchanting days and seven thrilling nights."

At Heathwood Resort Motel, they will enjoy all the privileges of a private beach, a king-size swimming pool. There will be deep sea fishing in the gulf stream from a big yacht of the Skip Jack Lines, a jungle cruise with a stopover at Musa Isle jungle village, the home of the Semiole Indians.

Their First Trip

They will visit the Orchid Jungle, which is described as the world's largest outdoor orchid garden, and there will be a visit, too, to Tropical Hobbyland, the world-famous Seminole village and zoo.

Neither of the Millers ever has been to Florida and they are looking forward with great expectations to this jaunt to the Southland as the guests of Kennie's Market.

"I'm just thrilled about it," Mrs. Miller said. "Our friends still don't believe we really won the trip. Neither of us ever has been father south than the Carolinas and I've never really had a vacation trip."

Both Are Employed

Mr. Miller is employed on the Byars and Allen farms and Mrs. Miller works nights at the Gettysburg Shoe factory. They have three children.

They are tentatively planning the Florida trip for about June 1. The reservations they won in the drawing at Kennie's are usable between April 15 and July 1. The trip they won would cost about $200, Manager Kenneth Foust of Kennie's said.

The Millers won out of about 10,000 names placed in the drawing during a four-week period at Kennie's store here.

Kennie's Store at Chambersburg is making a similar offer and the final drawing will be made there Saturday evening of this week, when another lucky couple will be awarded a "vacation trip in the sunny south."

Shoppers at Kennie's were invited to sign blanks every time they shopped at Kennie's.

SOUTHERNERS TRY TO REVISE HOUSE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern senators appeared today to be banking on revising one section of the House-passed civil rights bill and thus delaying its passage indefinitely.

This hope was pointed up by Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) as senators at the other end of the scale in the civil rights battle vowed to try to strengthen the House measure.

Indications were, however, that leaders of both parties looked to a majority of the Senate to accept the 5-point bill passed by the House Thursday by a vote of 311-109.

Amendment And Delay

A trimmed-down version of the Eisenhower administration's civil rights program, it provides in its key section for court-appointed referees to prevent discrimination against Negroes seeking to vote.

If the House bill is passed by the Senate without change, it will go directly to President Eisenhower for his approval.

Should the Senate adopt any amendments, the measure would have to go back to the House. This would give Southern opponents there, particularly on the pivotal House Rules Committee, a chance to block any action for weeks or even months.

Set Deadline

After receiving the House bill Thursday, the Senate voted 86-5 to refer it to its Judiciary Committee for consideration, but fixed a Tuesday midnight deadline for its return to the Senate.

The action was taken on motion of Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) after the Senate rejected, 72-19, a move by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) to send the bill to the committee without any deadline.

The committee will meet Monday, but there was no indication what action, if any, it will take on the bill at that time.

Work On Log Jam

Meanwhile the Senate put aside the broader civil rights legislation

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene "Bim" Miller, 128 West St., are shown above receiving from Kenneth Foust, proprietor of Kennie's Market on S. Franklin St., a certificate entitling them to an expenses-paid vacation of one week at Miami Beach. The Millers won the trip in a recent drawing at Kennie's Market. (Ziegler Studio photo)

FIGHT WARMS IN GREENE CO.

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—The lumber dealer who will try to unseat Rep. Stephen McCann (D-Greene) in April's primary election accuses the House majority leader of trying to win the district fight on the state level.

Russell E. Headlee of nearby Garards Fort based his criticism on a letter sent to 50 state lobbyists soliciting funds in behalf of McCann. The letter was written by Rep. John F. Stank (D-Northumberland).

Headlee said Thursday night: "I feel they're endeavoring on the state level to bring pressure on county employees and those on the state level. It would appear from action of the past week that this is correct."

McCann himself said yesterday he is not "interested at all in financial aid in my campaign," he said.

"What I want more is the support of the people in my fight for the Democratic nomination. This is what I think was the main purpose of Johnny Stank's letter. Headlee hinted that he has the

it had been working on since Feb. 15 and started clearing out a log jam of appropriation bills and other measures before returning to civil rights on Wednesday.

Russell, leader of the Southern senators fighting the legislation, said they will attempt to modify the House bill and expressed doubt it would be accepted by the Senate without change.

He referred particularly to a section which would make it a federal crime to interfere by force or threats with court orders against school segregation.

SAMMY WHITE HAS PROBLEMS AS HE QUILTS

BOSTON (AP)—Sammy White today remained determined to quit baseball but admitted uncertainty about how to file the papers which would close the book on a nine-year major league career.

On this bit of paperwork hinges the final verdict on the baseball trade in which White is the key figure.

Only when Commissioner Ford Frick receives the veteran catcher's retirement papers can he void the deal which sent White to Cleveland along with utility man Jim Marshall for catcher Russ Nixon.

Talked To Lane Again

"I'm getting the papers ready but I don't know where to send them," White said Thursday. "I've heard three or four different versions of what the proper procedure should be."

Meanwhile White had his fourth telephone conversation with Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane since arriving in Boston Wednesday. He also talked to American League President Joe Cronin who phoned from Scottsdale, Ariz.

"Lane is a very understanding man," White said. "We had a long talk and at the end of it we both decided that I still was retired."

In Scottsdale Cronin said: "I told him I thought that at 31 he is too young to retire. I told him he had many years of good baseball ahead of him. Sammy explained that he had his plans set. But he promised he would talk to Lane again let Lane know if there is any change in his plans. We left it at that."

ALLIED, RUSS REACH SOME TREATY ACCORD

GENEVA (AP) — Delegates of the Soviet bloc and the North Atlantic Alliance tentatively agreed Thursday on six initial principles for the control of an East-West disarmament treaty.

The two sides at the 10-nation disarmament conference remained sharply divided, however, on how to go on from there.

The six points of agreement were defined by the French disarmament expert, Jules Moch, on behalf of his own country, the United States, Britain, Italy and Canada.

Welcome, But Avoided
Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin welcomed Moch's definition but avoided all discussion of details.

Moch's definition summarized the points of East-West agreement on control principles which the Western delegations believe emerged during the first week of the 10-nation talks.

These were:
1. Acceptance of the need for an international disarmament organization to act as the enforcement organ of a treaty.

2. The need for control of every stage of agreed disarmament from the beginning to the end of the process.

To Continue Control
3. The continuation of control after the completion of any agreed disarmament measure to prevent secret violations.

4. The need for full participation of all states in a general world-wide disarmament treaty. This would include particularly Red China, which is not represented at this conference.

5. The need to control the actual cuts in men and weapons made in compliance with the treaty.

6. The need for verification carried out by an international staff of inspectors.

Tell Of Ike's Hope For Golfing Holiday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House indicated Thursday President Eisenhower hopes to visit Augusta, Ga., next month for a golfing vacation.

TANEYTOWN — Rededication of the Taneytown Presbyterian Church, the Rev. William M. Hendricks, pastor, was observed Tuesday evening. Members and friends met in the newly-renovated sanctuary in a service of rededication. The Taneytown Presbyterian Church was organized in 1828. They united with the German Reformed congregation in building a church which they used jointly until the Presbyterians built the present structure in 1883.

The Rev. Jack M. Croup, pastor, Lochearn Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, and moderator of the Synod of Baltimore, was the principal speaker. His subject was "God Our Helper."

The Rev. Russell Butcher, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Hagerstown, brought greetings from the Baltimore Presbytery. The Rev. Stanley B. Jennings, pastor of the Taneytown Trinity Lutheran Church, brought greet-

MOST PAPERS WERE FAIR IN '58 ELECTIONS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — About three out of four daily newspapers in Pennsylvania reported with fairness and objectivity both Democratic and Republican campaigns in the 1958 state elections, a Pennsylvania State University research study indicated today.

This means that three-fourths of Pennsylvania's voters and newspaper readers, regardless of their party affiliation, could rely on their newspapers to present a fair account of their favorite candidates, said Dr. James W. Markham, who heads graduate studies and research in the School of Journalism.

The findings were based on analysis of 26 of the state's 125 daily newspapers for 30 week days prior to election day. The papers ranged in circulation from 6,000 to more than a half million and represented 2,682,907, or about 64.8 per cent of the combined daily circulation in Pennsylvania.

"Of the 26 papers studied, seven were found to deviate significantly in their news treatment in order to favor one party or candidate, the evidence and objective criteria of this study show," Dr. Markham says. Five of these papers gave an advantage to the Republican Party, two to the Democratic Party.

The smaller circulation newspapers from the sister churches of Taneytown.

The choir sang "The Shepherd Psalm" by Thomas. Following the service the Berean Circle was hostess in an hour of fellowship in the newly-acquired Church School and social room. The sanctuary was beautifully decorated with flowers and gifts from Stuller Construction Co., the Birnie Trust Co., George L. Harner, Koons Florist and the Berean Circle. The Rev. John Thomson, pastor of the Westminster Church, read the Scripture lesson.

The William F. Myers and Sons Band, Westminster, will present a concert in the auditorium of the high school Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

"Being An All-Around Boy Or Girl" is the title of the program to be conducted by the high school counselor during April and May. Development of young people in the modern age will be the objective of the program.

The Taneytown Lions Club held its ladies' night program at the Taney Inn Tuesday evening with Murray D. Ryan, a Lion official from Mt. Airy as guest speaker. Ryan outlined the importance of conventions to the gathering and his remarks were later supported by colored slides of past conventions. The Lions will meet again Tuesday April 12 for the observance of "city government" night when Raymond J. Perry will conduct the program.

The Taneytown Jaycees will sponsor a "Pancake Day" Friday in the firemen's building. The Jaycees and their wives will serve pancakes sausage and coffee throughout the day from 6:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. Proceeds will go toward the improvement of the Memorial Park.

Award Child, 7, To Sister Of Mother

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Custody of Andrew Paul Yudisky, 7, only survivor of an automobile-truck accident last July 19, was awarded Thursday by President Judge John J. Aponick to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schultz of Shickshinny R. 3. Mrs. Schultz is a sister of the boy's mother.

Young Paul was orphaned when his mother and father, Andrew P. Yudisky, 41, and Ruth, 34, and a sister, Mary Ann, 5, all of Nescopeck, Berwick R. 1, were killed in the collision.

Also killed in the same crash were Roland Killian, Jr., 7 months and Rosalie Ann Killian, 2, of Shickshinny R. 1. The accident occurred on the Hazleton-Berwick highway, known as Route 29, near the Nescopeck Bridge, about seven miles from Hazleton.

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — South Africa's Nationalist government Thursday banned all public meetings of all races until June 30 in the major cities of Johannesburg, Durban and Capetown as racial tensions increased in the wake of this week's bloody riots.

Papers tended to lean toward the Republicans in their news treatment, while the large metropolitan press tended to lean slightly toward the Democrats.

Significantly, editorial support of a candidate tended to be related to favoritism toward that candidate or party in the news columns. Editorially, three papers endorsed Democrats, nine papers supported the Republican ticket, four papers split the ticket, endorsing the Republican candidate for senator and the Democratic candidate for governor. The others were neutral.

List Other Highlights
The study showed that newspaper content concentrated overwhelmingly on the two major offices of governor and senator. The three other positions in the state-wide elections received less than seven per cent of the newspaper coverage.

Ex-governor Leader, as the most controversial candidate, received almost three times as much newspaper space and headlines as Scott. Total coverage was about evenly divided between Lawrence and McGonigle. A considerable proportion of Leader's newspaper coverage was found to be unfavorable to him and favorable to Scott.

Other highlights of the study:
1. Front page attention amounted to 17 per cent of the total volume "and appears to be small in view of the importance of the campaign."

More Coverage In 1956
2. Analysis of the flow two of the 26 newspapers suggested that the amount of political coverage available was about one-third greater than the volume actually published.

3. Analysis of issues indicated for the most part "that personalities and political bragadocio were the dominant propaganda themes in the campaign as reflected by the press."

Prof. Markham, in comparing this study with a comparable study of the 1956 presidential election said four years ago the news coverage was much greater, more newspapers took an editorial stand, and a much larger percentage of news was used on Page 1.

LONDON (AP) — Princess Anne will be one of the eight youthful bridesmaids at the May 6 wedding of Princess Margaret and Antony Armstrong-Jones. Names of the bridesmaids, whose ages range from 6 to 12, were made public Thursday by Clarence House, Margaret's London home.

Armstrong-Jones also will be represented by a niece among the bridesmaids—the Hon. Catherine Vesey, 6, daughter of Viscount and Viscountess de Vesci. The viscountess is the bridegroom's sister.

Say Legislation Is Death-Bound

WASHINGTON (AP) — Area redevelopment legislation in the hands of the House Rules Committee appears headed for a "legislative death," says Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R-Pa.). The Altoona congressman noted in a statement Wednesday that the committee has had the redevelopment bill before it since May, 1959, when it won approval of the House Banking Committee.

The House bill authorizes 251 million dollars for loans, grants and technical assistance to chronically depressed areas. A similar bill that has passed the Senate provides for 389½ million dollars.

Van Zandt said that it is up to democratic leaders in the House to get the bill to the floor for a vote. He said Democrats control the Rules Committee, 8-4.

PFC Head Tells Of Contacts Made By Firm In Rate Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the Federal Power Commission says off-the-record contacts were made with him and other members of the commission by a gas firm representative during a multimillion dollar rate case.

FPC Chairman Jerome K. Kuykendall told of the contacts Wednesday in testimony to the House Commerce Committee. He acknowledged that the FPC made last minute changes in fixing the rate of return for the firm involved, the Midwestern Gas Transmission Co.

Kuykendall angrily disputed a remark by Rep. John D. Dingell (D-Mich) that his action raised "grave questions of your propriety."

Kuykendall said a spokesman for Midwestern talked to him in the FPC office and also contacted other commission members privately.

The firm's spokesman also telephoned him, Kuykendall said. He added that the caller told him the company's president had read accounts of arguments before the commission and gained the impression that the FPC tended to base the return rate on the assumption Midwestern would receive financing assistance from its parent firm.

Kuykendall didn't identify the parent concern, Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., one of the world's largest natural gas firms. Nor did he identify the firm's spokesman. But Dingell told reporters it was Thomas G. Corcoran, Washington attorney for Tennessee Gas.

Deadline Is Recalled

Regarding the change, Kuykendall said the original draft of the opinion never had been approved by the full commission and that final agreement was not reached until almost the deadline last Oct. 31.

Kuykendall said the firm's spokesman protested to him over the phone that Midwestern needed a 7 per cent rate of return—as it already had stated—if it were to operate profitably. The FPC staff, the chairman said, had recommended a lower one. The commission wound up fixing what it called an open-end return—with the exact percentage to be set later.

CONSTRUCTION OF RESERVOIRS IS PROPOSED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Army Engineers has proposed construction of 11 major reservoirs in the Delaware River Basin at a cost of 264 million dollars.

All of the projects involve water supply and recreation uses and all but three include flood control provisions.

The proposals are contained in a report by Col. Truman H. Setliffe, district engineer, following a three-year, two-million-dollar study of an area running 265 miles from the Catskill Mountains in New York to the Atlantic Ocean at the mouth of Delaware Bay.

Revision Is Due

Setliffe said the report is subject to revision before he submits it to his superiors. The recommendations consider water needs until the year 2010.

Many of the projects have been proposed by the Engineers before. Thursday's report was a summation of its overall recommendation, containing many new cost estimates. The report goes to Engineers headquarters and, after revision, to the Congress, which authorized the survey.

In summary, Setliffe said the plan would provide 38,300 acres of additional recreational waters; augment water supply, reduce flood threats 46 per cent and provide for 385 million kilowatt hours of electrical energy annually.

Hearings on the tentative plans were scheduled for April 13 in Philadelphia, N. J.; April 20 in Reading; April 27 in Wilmington, Del., and May 4 in Port Jervis, N. Y.

MAN WHO QUIT U.S. FOR RUSSIA MAY RETURN

ZELIENOPLE, Pa. (AP)—Does Robert Webster, who gave up his wife and his children for Soviet citizenship, want to return to the United States?

There are reports he's had a change of heart. If so, his father is non-committal and the State Department reports it has had no word about Webster's wanting to return.

In Cleveland a spokesman for the Rand Development Corp., the firm which sent Webster to Moscow to help prepare a plastic exhibit, said it has not heard from him.

Webster's father, Charles, Thursday refused to either confirm or deny he has received a letter from his son indicating he wants to return to this country.

Wife Is Forgotten

"Our mail is private and not for the public and not for the newspapers," said the elder Webster.

Asked if he didn't consider a cause under the jurisdiction of the State Department a public matter, he replied:

"That's between me and the State Department."

Mrs. Martha Webster and her children, Michael, 7, and Anne, 6, have been living with her parents, since her 30-year-old husband renounced his American citizenship last October.

She said:

"I haven't had any direct contact with Bob since that time. I wish somebody would tell me something."

Solid fits, too. It means the strength and durability built into Plymouth's one-piece welded Unibody. It means the steady stance of Torsion-Aire Ride. It means the surging V-8 power up front.

This just might be your car. Best way to find out is to see your Plymouth dealer. This week's a good time. He'll supply the Solid Plymouth for your once-over. You can supply the rest of the words.

DR. BAUGHMAN SPEAKER FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Dr. Harry Baughman, president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity Wednesday evening in the social hall of the Eagles' home, after the members had attended the church of their choice.

Dr. Baughman commended the Woman's Club, a civic group whose purpose is for the betterment of the community, for giving thought to religion in their programming. He stated, "Life does not depend on the accomplishments of scientific skill, wealth, education, or material power, it depends on the spirit that is at the heart of life. The spirit of enjoyment so often takes precedence over the spirit of sacrifice and service; we think much about personal rights but not enough about personal responsibility."

"Abraham Lincoln said: 'If this nation shall fail, it will not be because of enemies within.' The cause of enemies within." The rise and fall of seven successive civilizations can be traced by experts over this particular pattern, of a people without vision." Dr. Baughman said, "We have reached a zenith of human mastery and we need a spiritual vision so that the mastery can be used not for destruction but for the help of all mankind and for the glory of God."

Prepare For Show

Dr. Baughman was introduced by Mrs. Roy D. Renner, chairman of the program committee for the evening. The program included group singing of "The Old Rugged Cross" with Mrs. Charles W. Weikert as accompanist and a reading "The Legend of the Dogwood," by Mrs. James W. Fager.

The business meeting was in charge of the club president, Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode, who received reports from Mrs. Chester S. Byers and Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzkey. The annual club fashion show was discussed by Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, acting chairman of the Fine Arts Committee which is in charge of arrangements. The show will attempt to have fashions on the four seasons. Any club member or someone in her family or any Junior Club member who has fashions to be modeled or to model herself is asked to contact Mrs. Weikert or a member of her committee.

Prizes Provided

The Fashion Show will be held on Wednesday, April 27, at 8 p.m., in the high school auditorium and it is hoped that all those planning to have fashions modeled will contact the committee as soon as possible. The Fine Arts Committee includes in addition to Mrs. Weikert, Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar, Mrs. Leroy W. Bish, Mrs. Beaven F. Hanlon, Mrs. Irvin R. Kindig, Mrs. Robert H. Miller.

Individual club members will also provide prizes for the event and it is asked that these be given to Mrs. Weikert, Mrs. Bish, Mrs. Edward H. Leister or Mrs. Earl L. Stiles or left at the telephone office, where they will be displayed, ten days in advance of the show date. Dress rehearsal is planned for Tuesday, April 26.

The club will provide an aluminum chaise longue and an outdoor grille as the door prize. Tickets for the show, in charge of the finance committee, were distributed to the members in attendance on Wednesday. Mrs. Karl P. Bankert will provide musical background for the fashion show.

Appoints Nominating Group

It was noted that dues are now payable to Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzkey. The membership committee proposed Mrs. George E. Hornberger, Mrs. Donald Clapsaddle and Mrs. Jack Cook as new members. The bylaws revisions were read by Mrs. Roy D. Renner, chairman of the legislation and citizenship committee, which prepared them, and they were adopted as amended. It was voted to purchase new bylaw books also. Mrs. Carrie Strine reported that the cabinet being made to display the Jabberwock trophy won by the club will be ready for the next meeting.

Mrs. Eckenrode appointed the following nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers for election at the May 25 meeting: Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, chairman, Mrs. John D. Basehoar, Mrs. A. G. Ealy, Mrs. Stanley S. Horner and Mrs. George DeHoff. The list of Adams County Federation nominees was read by the president and she announced that the spring meeting of the federation will be held on Wednesday, April 26.

Reservations for the dinner meeting to be held at Schottie's at 6:30 p.m. on that date must be made with the club president by April 18.

Plan Bus Trip

The annual bus trip, plans for which are in charge of the Civic Service committee, will be dinner and a play at Allenberry, possibly on a date near the end of May. Mrs. Monroe J. Staveland, chairman of the committee, listed the plays at the theater and discussed other plans for the trip.

The next meeting will be the Fashion Show and business will be omitted. The hostess committee to prepare refreshments for that event includes Mrs. Bernard M. Selby, Mrs. Charles Benner, Mrs. Clayton L. Evans, Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz, Mrs. Orville C. Sentz, and Mrs. James Slick.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by the program committee, Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner, chairman, Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse, Mrs. A. G. Ealy, Mrs. John H. Fleming, Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert, Mrs. Robert J. Stoner, and Mrs. Howard Trostle. Pamphlets were distributed to the member, "What to Wear, Where and When."

Mrs. Robert H. Miller, first vice president, and Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar, of the fine arts committee, accompanied Mrs. Otto C. Sells, N. Queen St., the club's entry for the South Central District Vogue fashion contest, held Thursday at Bowman's in the West Plaza Shopping Center, Lemoyne. Mrs. Sells made and modeled an ensemble for the modern club woman, which will be featured at the club Fashion Show on April 27.

YORK HUNTER TO BE SPEAKER FOR BANQUET

The annual spring banquet of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc., will be held at 6:30 p.m. next Thursday at Bankert's Restaurant and Recreation Center, N. Queen St. This will be the first Ladies Night in the history of the organization. The meal will be served family style and souvenirs will be given to all in attendance.

He has just returned from a safari of several weeks in Africa, where he successfully hunted the big five, elephant, lion, leopard, the cape buffalo and the rhinoceros. In his talk, which will be illustrated by a hundred color slides, Mr. Consley will reveal that with proper planning a hunter can enjoy additional pleasures on a trip by studying the people and the countries which are visited.

Tickets Available
Members of Boy Scout Troop 84, who have their regular meeting that night, will be invited guests for the program following the meal.

The deadline for reservations or securing tickets, which are $2 each, from the ticket committee is Saturday. DENY LINK TO CUBAN FLYER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Miami brothers mentioned in congressional testimony have denied angrily any link with one of the Americans whose private plane was forced down Monday by gunfire in Cuba.

John Ek, 44, and Robert P. Ek, 33, said they know William J. Shergalis, one of the downed fliers, but have no business or other connections with him.

The denial came after Immigration Commissioner J. M. Swing told the Senate Appropriations Committee that his department was investigating a possible connection between Shergalis and the Fidel Castro regime through the Ek brothers.

Swing testified late Thursday before the Senate voted $500,000 for a stepped-up campaign to halt sneak flights to Cuba.

Swing said his agents had learned that Shergalis was associated in business with the brother of John Ek, whom he described as a registered agent for the Castro government. Swing suggested by implication that Shergalis may have made a trip to Cuba last month with the agent under an assumed name.

TWO ROADS TO DROP 21 TRAINS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania and Reading railroads will drop a total of 21 weekend trains with the start of daylight saving time, April 24.

Reading will eliminate eight Saturday and eight Sunday-holiday trains in the Philadelphia suburban area. Pennsylvania will cut five trains on the Philadelphia-Harrisburg-Pittsburgh run.

The Public Utility Commission said Thursday it found no reason to oppose the cuts, adding that its approval was not required. The railroads cited dwindling patronage for the schedule changes.

Pennsylvania will drop these trains which are scheduled Saturdays: Leaving Philadelphia for Harrisburg at 8:14 p.m.; leaving Philadelphia for Pittsburgh at 1:22 a.m. and leaving for Pittsburgh for Philadelphia at 4 p.m.

The railroad will also drop a train which leaves Pittsburgh for Harrisburg at 11:15 a.m. each Sunday.

In addition, Pennsylvania Railroad will eliminate a number of stops at its Westmoreland and its Highland stations on its Chestnut Hill branch.

FAIRFIELD — The three-act comedy, "Off the Track," will be presented by the junior class of the Fairfield Joint High School in the high school auditorium, Wednesday evening, March 30, at 8 o'clock.

The setting of the play is laid in the waiting room of a small wayside railroad station on a dark and stormy night. A strange mixture of people is thrown together when a fast train is derailed and the passengers come inside to wait for a relief train.

The cast includes Linda McLaughlin, Barbara Gladhill and Linda Harbaugh, as three peppy and attractive college girls; Joe McCauslin as a young law student; Kay Ramer as a fat woman; Julie Ross as her daughter; Virginia Spence as a wealthy and arrogant matron; Nancy Myers as a nosy old maid; Teddy Kane as a peculiar looking deaf man; Sue Ann Dearthoff and Ray Kuykendall as an engaged couple; Dale Ritchie as the station agent; and Johnny Sanders as the handy man around the station.

The action comes to a climax when a $10,000 pearl necklace is missing. The law student decides to stage a preliminary trial to determine who the guilty person is. Through his eloquence, the accused is proved innocent and he wins his first case. Miss Helen McClellan is directing the production.

Rescue Marines From Rubber Boat
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Five U.S. Marines, blown out to sea Tuesday in a rubber boat, have been rescued and flown to Formosa.

U.S. officials reported today the Marines were found on a small island 20 miles east of the southern tip of Formosa. Names of the men were not announced, but the Navy said all were in good condition.

The Marines were set adrift while on a reconnaissance mission as part of Operation Blue Star, a week-long, U.S.-Chinese amphibious exercise that began Monday off southern Formosa.

PREDICT NO RECESSION BEFORE 1961

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP) — The next recession won't come before 1961 at the earliest, government economists predicted today.

Officials reported privately that national output in this quarter has reached the rate of about 500 billion dollars a year, the largest gain in any quarter since 1950.

This was an advance estimate of the actual figure, but officials said the preliminary studies indicate the final report won't be far off the half-trillion dollar mark, one way or the other.

Recovery After Strike
This would represent an advance of roughly 16½ billion dollars since the last quarter of 1959, when the economy was still beset by the steel strike and its after effects. The gain, largest since the outbreak of the Korean War, was accomplished without price inflation and in the face of a February slowdown in steel and auto production.

Much of the first quarter gain was attributed to industry's race to replace inventories depleted during the 115-day steel shutdown which ended early in November. This inventory replacement took less time than was expected and a slower rate of accumulation is expected from now on.

Nevertheless, continued production gains through the year were foreseen by government experts interviewed privately. They did not share the uncertainty in financial circles which has been reflected in recent stock market slumps and a rapid easing of credit.

Rely On Expansion
The government analysts are relying on a substantial rise in

Shaler Launches Huge Campaign

In order to acquaint the motoring public with its products, Shaler Rislone, the Oil Alloy and Shaler S-200, the High Power Motor Oil Additive, the Shaler Company, Waupun, Wis., is launching a nationwide advertising campaign in The Gettysburg Times and over 750 other newspapers in the United States and Canada.

The first of a series of ads is published today, featuring the well-known oil alloy, Shaler Rislone. Rislone ads will carry a manufacturer's guarantee of "New Car Pep, Power and Performance within 10 miles or Your Money Back," and further offer the opportunity to procure a 24-piece "do-it-yourself" Oxwall Tool Kit for the price of $2.25. The regular price is $6.95.

Shaler S-200, the other product featured in the campaign, is said by Shaler to be the only motor oil additive made expressly for late-model car engines. When added to any type of crankcase motor oil, S-200 reduces fuel consumption, assures immediate lubrication, keeps all moving engine parts clean, cuts friction and wear, and cures sticking and noisy valves. The S-200 ads will carry a coupon which enables motorists to purchase a $1.50 can of S-200 at ¼ off (75c).

WINS AUTOMOBILE

A 1960 Studebaker Lark has been won by Mrs. C. Russell Gilbert, Biglerville, as a result of her participation in a W. E. Schrafft and Sons Corp. contest. The Boston company sponsored a Valentine Sweepstakes contest in which Mrs. Gilbert was one of 10 winners. A letter from I. J. Silverman, company president, stated that the car would be delivered this week.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—An old injury has sent Thomas Cardinal Tien, 69, only Chinese prince of the Roman Catholic Church, back to the hospital. An announcement today said he entered the Catholic Hospital at Lotung, northeast Formosa, on Tuesday for treatment of his arm, which was injured in an automobile accident in West Germany some months ago.

Industry's outlays for new plants, machinery and equipment to keep the economy expanding.

Corporations have notified the Commerce Department and Securities and Exchange Commission of plans to increase such outlays this year by 14 per cent over 1959. The rate in the second half of the year is scheduled to reach a record 38 billion dollars annually.

Some officials believe it will go higher. They think expansion and modernization outlays may rise to a rate of 39 or even 40 billion dollars annually by fall.

Only One "If"
This buoying force may diminish in 1961, as the companies taper off their expansion outlays to let demand catch up with their new capacity.

Then would be the time to look for a recession, one highly placed official said. But as for 1960, he continued, "a recession is conceivable this year only if the automobile industry goes sour."

Pitcher Don Newcombe batted .305 in 61 games for the Cincinnati Reds in 1959.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

A young Navy lieutenant, Dr. Thomas Dooley, was assigned to care for 600,000 refugees after the French and Indo-Chinese war. With a handful of dedicated assistants, he administered to the maimed, the ill and the homeless so unselfishly that he was decorated by the premier, who said, "My people will long remember . . . his work and his love."

Dr. Dooley took action on his belief in the brotherhood of man and Christ's commandment, "Love one another." He resigned from the Navy, gave up the promise of a medical career at home, took the earnings from his first book, "Deliver Us from Evil," and from his lectures, and returned to Indo-China. There he set up hospitals and created a warm concept of person-to-person "foreign aid." Later he was instrumental in forming the international non-profit organization, Medico, which seeks to care for the desperately ill in the world.

Last summer, Dr. Dooley flew back home for a lung cancer operation. His own opinion afterwards was that he had a 50-50 chance to live a year. But that didn't slow him up. Following a money-raising tour, he flew back to Indo-China, laden with gifts for the people to whom he has dedicated his life.

Set Time Limit In Antitrust Action

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Defendants in a billion-dollar electrical anti-trust suit—including five employees of Westinghouse Electric Corp.—must enter pleas of guilty or innocent within five days.

The directive was issued Thursday by Chief Judge J. Cullen Gandy of the U. S. District Court of Eastern Pennsylvania after he refused to accept no defense pleas by the defendants.

In addition to the Westinghouse employees the defendants whose pleas were rejected are three employees from the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., of Allis, Wis., and several electrical firms.

A total of 48 left handed pitchers started against the Chicago White Sox in 1959 and only seven stayed around to finish what they had begun.

CELTICS WIN NBA EASTERN LOOP CROWN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
History didn't repeat itself.

The Boston Celtics won the National Basketball Assn.'s Eastern Division playoffs in six games instead of the seven it took them last year, and the Minneapolis Lakers failed to eliminate St. Louis in the Western playoffs in six games as they did a year ago.

The Celtics nipped Philadelphia 119-117 Thursday night and won the best-of-seven finals in six games. St. Louis forced the Lakers to a seventh game with a 117-96 victory.

Tip-in Shot Won
Tom Heinsohn's tip-in shot in the final nine seconds broke a 117-116 tie for Boston's victory Thursday night. Bill Sharman, held to only 10 points, got his last two just prior to Heinsohn's winner to tie the score after fouls by Wilt Chamberlain and Paul Arizin had sent the Warriors ahead. Two missed fouls by Guy Rodgers helped Boston gain possession of the ball and go for the winning basket.

St. Louis never was threatened as it forced the Lakers to play the deciding game on the Hawks' court Saturday.

The Celtics will meet the winner in a best-of-seven series for the title starting with a nationally televised (NBC) game in Boston Sunday.

Women Will Study Christian Missions

The United Lutheran Church Women of Trinity Church, Taneytown, have set Sunday, April 3, as the new date for the special study of Christian Missions in Africa. Mrs. Charles Hauser, Harrisburg, will be guest speaker.

The first study session will be from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., followed by dinner served in the African tradition until 6 p.m. A second study period, geared to the interests of children for the first hour, will be held until 8 p.m.

The nursery will be open during the program.

The worst tornadoic storms on record—a group of 60 occurring Feb. 19, 1964—took the largest toll on record: 800 lives. The greatest property loss was recorded June 7-9, 1953, with damages of $93,230,840 suffered in Michigan, Ohio and the New England states.

Ample Hot Water Supply Assured By Proper-Sized Gas Water Heater

More than 80 per cent of all water used in the home is hot water. Even discounting baths, showers, dishes and laundry, there are still 136 uses for hot water in the home.

When you buy an automatic gas water heater it's important to get the right size tank. And be sure to size for the future, for families have a way of growing.

You can now "size by science" with the help of a "Sizing Slide-rule" developed by the American Gas Association. Consult your local gas appliance dealer about your specific family hot-water needs.

When inquiring, be sure to emphasize that you want a GAS water heater because only gas gives you maximum economy and speed. For example, a 30-gallon gas-fired water heater provides more hot water per hour than an 80-gallon tank run by any other automatic fuel.

Speed Is Essential

Speed is essential because new modern home laundries use a large amount of hot water in a brief period. Up to 20 gallons in 40 minutes to soak, scrub and rinse one wash load.

For an entire week's wash you'll need 60 gallons of good hot water in two hours. Only a gas-fired water heater is fast enough to keep up with that sort of demand.

In fact, with gas you can have all the hot water needed to handle three continuous loads of clothes and still end up with a full tank for other household needs.

When inspecting water heaters at your local gas appliance dealers, be sure to look for the American Gas Association's Laboratories' Approval Seal. And be sure to get the right size for your family.

Mail From Egypt Is Missent To Illinois

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—Mail meant for Shepherd's Hotel in Cairo, Egypt, was missent to Earl Shepherd's hotel in Cairo, Ill.

Shepherd said the letter was addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Nelson, care of Shepherd's Hotel, CAIRO, UAR, from Jessie L. Hamil, American Embassy, Jeddah, Saudi Arabia.

Shepherd said an Arab mail clerk apparently mistook UAR (United Arab Republic) for USA. Shepherd redirected the letter to Egypt.

32 Girls Spend An Alarming Morning

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—When men of Theta Kappa Phi turned over their Ohio State University fraternity house to dares during a weekend party, there was a catch.

Before leaving fraternity members hid several alarm at 4 a.m., keeping the 32 girls temporarily occupying the house busy hunting down the clocks.

SAVE WITH GAS—Daughter's piggy-bank is a good place for savings made possible by use of gas for family water heating. Hot water costs less because gas heaters are designed for peak efficiency. Gas burner supplies direct heat at tank base. This gives maximum heat at lowest fuel cost. Once water is hot, fiberglass insulation keeps it hot, reducing heat loss. Gas water heaters are fast, automatic and dependable, too. Using thermostat, housewife can select the water temperature desired. Automatic controls then take over, delivering tankful after tankful of clean, HOT water at low cost. To select proper sized tank for your family, ask gas appliance dealers about "laundry-rated" gas water heaters.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was almost like Christmas for the Cederstrom family Thursday. Fred Jr., 8, got a bicycle, Mike, 7, an electric train, and Cynthia, 1, a doll and doll house. All three were celebrating their birthdays.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

WAR OF FENCES WAGED IN CALIF.

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP)—A year ago Clarence Lott built a grape stake fence. He asked neighbor Robert Darnell if he wanted to share the cost. Darnell said no.

Recently, Darnell decided to fence his property. He asked Lott if he could use the grape stake fence along one side. No, said Lott.

So Darnell built his own fence—30 view-obstructing feet of it—six inches from Lott's fence. It ran right down to the sidewalk. He painted it with polka dots, on Lott's side only.

Now Lott is building a third fence, to screen the polka dots. It will be whitewashed. And then, he said, he will move away.

CLAIM BIG ERROR

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Alan Ladd and his wife, Sue Carol, want an $87,184 income tax refund.

They claim $100,000 paid by an English producer in 1954 was not taxable because they were out of the country at the time. They said in federal court Thursday that the Internal Revenue Bureau made a mistake on their tax.

FERRERS HAVE BOY

Weatherman Has Woes Like Others

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Henry Adams once had to walk nearly a mile to his home after his car was halted by a snowstorm that arrived earlier than the weatherman predicted.

Another time he planned a big family picnic, only to have it rained out by an unexpected storm.

These experiences wouldn't be unusual for the average person. But Adams is chief meteorologist for the U.S. Weather Bureau here.

ONLY FOUR TO GO

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California has become the 46th state to impose a cigarette tax, leaving only Colorado, North Carolina, Oregon and Virginia without a state levy on tobacco products.

GO FIRST CLASS...

Get all the hot water you need for only pennies
with a FAMILY RATED GAS Water Heater

Is your present water heater giving you FIRST CLASS hot water service at unmatched savings? The fuel you use just to heat water alone means more than you'd imagine!

For example, a GAS Water Heater costs so much less than an electric water heater in operating cost that you save enough to buy a new GAS Dryer.

The difference in hot water service is just as amazing. Because GAS heats water faster, replaces it faster, you never run out of hot water. Even if you want to do a whole week's wash in a single morning. Even if you have three, four or five children and need enough water for all those baths right in a row.

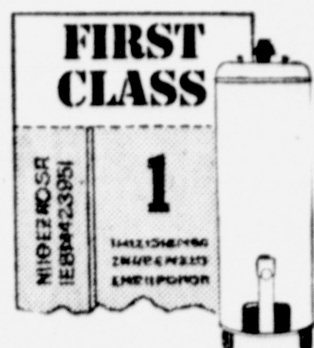

No wonder more people than ever are heating water with GAS because only GAS is so fast and so economical.

PSYCHOLOGIST TO BE FEATURE OF NBC SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Broadcasting Co. obviously is convinced that what the American woman needs is a TV series about her everyday problems. Thus it is underwriting production of some drama-discussions on such subjects as sibling rivalries, husbands who won't talk to their wives, child rearing and why people are late to appointments.

Star of the projected daytime series will be Dr. Joyce Brothers, the young blonde psychologist who first rose to fame and riches as an expert on boxing on the late "64,000 Question" and "64,000 Challenge." Since 1955, however, she has emerged as a degree-qualified expert in the advice area, with two daily TV shows on NBC's New York station.

Psycho-hostess
Dr. Brothers says her show will consist of dramatizations of problems followed by her little talk, in laymen's language, about the problem and what psychologists know about it. And she will have a title new to TV: "psychologist-hostess."

"It will not be entertainment," insists Dr. Brothers. "It will be helpful. And I know it is something that women need. In one year, just from the New York area, I've received 200,000 letters from people with problems—and almost all of them are signed by the writers' names."

Dirty Sinks

Hubbell Robinson, Startime producer and former top CBS programming vice president, says, in connection with rumors about an important new network post, that "I have had no conversations at all with NBC." A new TV projection system will soon go on the market and will remove the scratches, dirt and other signs of wear from old movies. It may even make British movies look as if they had not been filmed in a dark cellar.

Did any housewife ever let her house — particularly her sink, walls and her floors — get as dirty as the cleaner-commercials imply at almost every station break?

Recommended tonight: "The Snows of Kilimanjaro," CBS, 8:30-10 (Eastern Standard Time) — adaptation of Ernest Hemingway's book with Mary Astor, Robert Ryan, Ann Todd; Awards Show, NBC, 8:30-9:30 — promised as brief awards ceremonies plus entertainment gently kidding television.

CARS COLLIDE
Cars operated by Richard W. Ebersole, 25, Fairfield R. 1, and Paul R. Miller, 25, of Fort Ritchie, Md., were damaged in a collision on the Sunshine Trail, 2.6 miles east of Waynesboro, Tuesday morning. Police said the westbound Ebersole car skidded on the snow-covered surface of the road and struck the eastbound Miller vehicle. Damage to Ebersole's car was set at $150 and to the Miller station wagon at $350.

outer office, Doc, I just read an interesting article in the Literary Digest about the national election. Why are they so sold on Landon?"

"I see by the National Geographic that Doc Cook has finally reached the North Pole."

Claim Jumpers Beware
"Drill ahead, Doc, but remember—if you hit gold, it's mine."

"Why don't dentists sell advertising space on their foreheads, Doc? They've got the perfect captive audience."

"I'll bet it gives you a secret sense of power to keep women open-mouthed and silent."

"My son has been chewing gum fortified with fluoride to cut down on dental cavities. Is it still all right for him to drink water?"

"Thank you, Doc—the filling is mutual."

Worker Injured At New Oxford

Asbury Kuhn, 23, Carlisle, was admitted to the Hanover Hospital Wednesday noon suffering from a possible back injury he suffered in a fall at the new sewage treatment plant at New Oxford being erected by Reisinger Brothers, Carlisle contractors.

E. W. Walker, New Oxford, general superintendent of the project, said Kuhn was operating an electric hand drill while placing a railing along a platform at the plant when he fell to the ground, a distance of about nine feet. Kuhn's condition was listed as satisfactory at the hospital where he had been moved in the New Oxford Fire Company ambulance.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

WOULD AMEND GAS TAX LAW

An amendment to the state's fuel use tax act of 1952 will be offered to the House at Harrisburg when the legislature reconvenes on June 6 by Assemblyman Francis Worley. The amendment will provide for a discount of two per cent on the state tax charged gasoline service station operators to offset their losses in gallonage by shrinkage after tank truck deliveries.

Mr. Worley said the measure had been urged by several service station operators in this county who pointed out they pay tax on more gas than they sell because of volume shrinkage. Inquiry among dealers, Mr. Worley said, indicated that two per cent would be a fair allowance.

The assemblyman said he has cleared the bill with the Republican member of the special committee which rules on the type of legislation to be introduced at this 1960 session. Mr. Worley said the amendment is offered in the interest of "justice" to service station operators.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Card of Thanks 2
REBERT: Thanks to my friends for the many cards and the telegram I received on my 75th birthday this week.
QUINTON D. REBERT

In Memoriam 3
McBETH: In memory of our dear husband and father, S. Walter McBETH, who passed away one year ago, March 25, 1959.
Many tears were shed on that sorrowful day.
But God led the way and in sorrow we had to be.
A father true, a father kind has gone and left us behind.
'Twas hard to part, but God knew best
To take him to his heavenly rest.
Sadly missed by
WIFE AND CHILDREN

SOLE SURVIVOR SUES AIRLINE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Louis J. Matarazzo, 36, sole survivor of an airplane crash near Williamsport, Pa., which took 25 lives, has filed a $600,000 damage suit against Allegheny Airlines.

Sylvan M. Cohen, Matarazzo's attorney, filed the suit Thursday in U. S. District Court.

It asks damages not only for medical expenses but also for expenses for Matarazzo's wife who has been living in Williamsport to be near her husband since the accident last December. He is still in a Williamsport hospital. He suffered a skull fracture, burns and an eye injury.

Matarazzo is a sportswear manufacturer. The father of four, he is a resident of Springfield, Delaware County.

Urges Voters To Oppose Race Plan

PITTSBURGH (AP)—State Sen. Robert D. Fleming urges voters to oppose legalizing pari-mutuel betting at harness race tracks in the state.

"If pari-mutuel betting is approved, it will be but the first step or opening wedge to legalize other forms of gambling," Fleming told the Allegheny County League of Women voters Thursday.

"From a standpoint of helping ease our financial problems in Pennsylvania — it just couldn't, it would be but a drop in the bucket when you consider our state budget for two years."

The horse race proposal will appear on the ballot in certain counties in the April primary.

NO DANGER OF FLOODS NOW IN SUSQUEHANNA

HARRISBURG (AP)—Although there was more snow this year, the Federal State Flood Forecast Service says thawing is not expected to cause any significant flooding in the central Pennsylvania area.

O. D. White, hydrologist for the service here, said there is a potential danger of some flooding in the Susquehanna watershed if the area receives moderate to heavy rains.

"I wouldn't say there is any immediate danger of flooding," White said, "but everyone should be aware of the potential danger if we should have rains."

He said the Flood Forecasting Service was watching the situation closely and would issue a special warning if any danger of flooding developed.

White pointed out no rain was predicted and temperatures had been almost ideal for slow thawing—about 40 to 50 degrees during the day and below freezing at night.

Club Owners Say Ruling Means Ruin

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Local night club owners claim a State Liquor Control Board ruling abolishing cover charges may ruin their businesses.

Following a meeting of the Tri-State Theater - Restaurant Owners Assn. Thursday, one club owner said:

"This will run us out of business."

Cover charges are used to pay for high-priced performers the owners said.

Pinball Machines To Be Destroyed

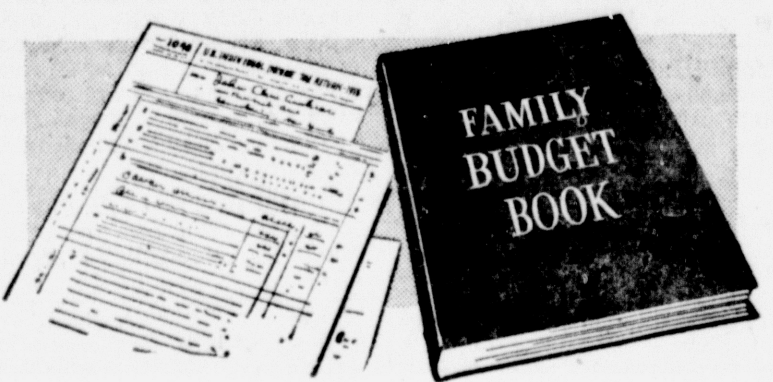

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Some 150 multiple-coin pinball machines seized by state police in the Pittsburgh area will be destroyed unless the U. S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals puts off the destruction.

Judge Homer S. Brown of Allegheny County Common Pleas Court Thursday ordered destruction of the machines. At the same time, he asked for a check on the possibility of the federal court's stay.

The machines, valued at about $1,000 each, were seized last Feb. 1 and 12. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has ruled multiple-coin pinball machines are illegal gambling devices.
